

Jyoti Punj

Jyoti Punj is an Independent Director on the Board of Punj Lloyd.

Jyoti pursued design from the Inchbald School of Design in London post her graduation from Jesus & Mary College, New Delhi. Her Sole Proprietorship, Interior Design business, set up in 1990, Collectables @ The Inside Story has been in operation for over 27 years, covering residential, retail, healthcare and embassy projects. She has also been the Managing Director of Intramural Design Ltd, another Interior Design Company.

A multifaceted personality, Jyoti enhanced her language skills with learning German in New Delhi and Italian in Rome, Italy. She acquired knowledge of skills of curtain making, soft furnishings, upholstery, carpentry & furniture joinery, wood turning and specialised paint finishes at the London Guild, Roger Newton School of Decorative Finishes and Milne House, UK. Jyoti has also learnt Trompe-l'œil - an art technique that uses realistic imagery to create the optical illusion, from the well-known Trompe-l'œil French Artist Christian Corgier.

As an Independent Director for Punj Lloyd where design is imperative for successful construction, Jyoti's keen sense of sustainability and design coupled with knowledge of global material and standards will play an invaluable role on the Board.

In her free time, Jyoti treks high altitude mountains and passes. Some of her recent achievements have been to the Annapurna Base Camp in Nepal, Audens Col in the Gangotri Range, and summiting Kilimanjaro in Africa, the highest free standing mountain in the world! She has her aim set on still higher summits in this coming year.
