Punj Lloyd Group wins Rs. 528 crore project to construct a new Prison Headquarters for the Changi Prison Complex in Singapore

New Delhi, 10th December 2012 – Diversified global conglomerate, Punj Lloyd Group today announced winning Rs. 528 crore worth project from the Singapore Prison Service to construct the new Prison Headquarters of the Changi Prison Complex. The Singapore Prison Service is a government agency under the purview of the Ministry of Home Affairs. As a key member of the Home Team of the Government of Singapore, its responsibilities encompass the safe custody, rehabilitation and aftercare of offenders, and provide preventive education.

As per the Letter of Award (LOA) received from the Singapore Prison Service, Sembawang Engineers and Constructors (Sembawang), a Punj Lloyd Group company, will execute the project for the construction of four buildings and several ancillary buildings, substantial earthworks with retaining walls, road widening and external work. The project will be completed over a period of 24 months.

Speaking on the occasion, Richard Grosvenor, President & CEO of Sembawang, said: “We are delighted to win this project. Sembawang, with extensive experience in building complex landmark structures, will be able to deliver the new Prison Headquarters to support the Singapore Prison Service in helping inmates to turn over a new leaf and reintegrate into society after their release.”

When completed, the new Prison Headquarters will provide office facilities, a multi-purpose hall, club house and auditorium.

With this order, the total order backlog for the Punj Lloyd Group on a consolidated basis is Rs. 25,941 Crore, reflecting the total value of unexecuted orders as on September 30, 2012 plus new orders received after that.
