

Rakesh Amol

Rakesh Amol is the Chief Executive Officer of the Punj Lloyd Group.

With 30 years of domestic and global experience in EPC and Manufacturing, Rakesh brings to the table extensive experience of managing organisations across a range of sectors like Power, Oil & Gas, Infrastructure and other industries.

Prior to joining Punj Lloyd, Rakesh was with KEC International Ltd, a RPG Group company, one of India's largest industrial conglomerates as President – Infrastructure and Cables.

He has also worked with Clyde Blowers Capital – a UK based private equity firm through which he has managed various portfolio companies across the globe.

His other assignments have been at various leadership levels with Alstom Power, Voith Siemens and Mitsui.

As is evident, Rakesh's portfolio is reflective of his expertise across a host of sectors predominantly those complementary to Punj Lloyd's.

An alumni of Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra and FMS, Delhi University, Rakesh is a seasoned executive who has a track record of delivering turnarounds and performance improvements.

At Punj Lloyd, he will play a critical role in driving productivity, augmenting processes, strengthening various business entities and improving overall financial performance. He will also be responsible for creating a roadmap for restructuring the Group to drive sustainable growth.
