

Punj Lloyd's Doha order extended

PunjLloyd, has received the approval of extension of their existing contract with New Doha International Airport.

According to a release, the extension would enhance the capacity of the fuel system to take care of phase II expansion of the new airport. The project is expected to get over by December next year. The extension order is valued at Rs 258 crore.